

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The United States Coast Guard, the United States Coast Guard Reserve, and the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary have always been dedicated to the preservation of life and property in peace time and in time of national emergency, both on land and on sea; and,

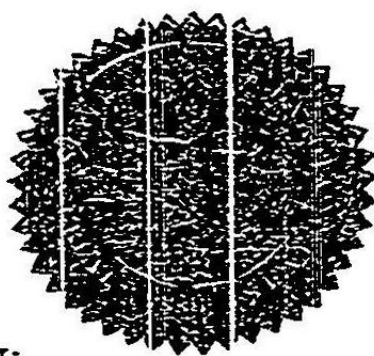

WHEREAS, The United States Coast Guard is celebrating the beginning of its 200th year of service August 4, 1989, through August 4, 1990, commemorating yet another year of continuous, outstanding service to the citizens of Oklahoma and citizens on the inland waters of the United States, including the Kerr-McClellan Waterway; and,

WHEREAS, The United States Coast Guard, the Coast Guard Reserve and the Coast Guard Auxiliary are to be commended for their untiring efforts toward educating the citizens of South Dakota in water safety, protecting our environment from pollution, assisting our citizens during flood relief activities, and fulfilling numerous other humanitarian missions:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 4, 1989, through August 4, 1990, as in South Dakota in recognition of the 200th year of continuous service of the United States Coast Guard and to commend the many members of this fine organization for their service to our state and nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-First Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
